

ABOUT THE STATE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

St. Albans' annual chicken dinner for poor children was served this year as usual, about 40 being present.

Norma D., small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Stevens of Burlington, was scalded in a pail of hot water while playing Monday. She will recover.

Mrs. Almira Slater, aged 94 years, tripped on her shoestring while coming downstairs at the home of her daughter in Essex Junction, Monday, and fell, breaking her right hip and badly bruising her head. Although of such advanced years Mrs. Slater has been in good health, but quite feeble and deaf.

A team driven by Fred Gage was struck by a train at a crossing in Vergennes Saturday night and one of the horses, a valuable one, was so badly injured it had to be shot. The other one escaped with a few bruises. The wagon was wrecked. Mr. Gage was thought to be seriously hurt, but was found to be suffering only from severe bruises.

At the annual meeting of the Vermont State Chequer club in Burlington on Tuesday J. A. Jarvis of St. Albans was elected president, L. J. Eggleston of Rutland vice president, W. C. Hoag of Burlington secretary and treasurer. The state championship contest started Tuesday afternoon under the direction of William Gill of St. Johnsbury.

Sues Father-in-law for Services.

Eva L. Brown of Marlboro, who recently sued her husband, Ernest, for divorce and has been awarded temporary alimony, has entered suit for $2,000 against her father-in-law, Albert G. Brown, of Marlboro, and the Marlboro Savings bank, trustee. The suit is to recover pay for housework she claims to have done for her father-in-law from June 13, 1913 to Jan. 1, 1915, with interest. Mrs. Brown claims that when she was married she went immediately to the home of her husband's father and there began housekeeping. She claims that it was agreed that her father-in-law was to pay her $3 a week for her services and that he has never made substantial payments. The specifications filed in her suit show a few credits, among them 50 cents for a pair of rubbers and several entries of cash on account ranging from 50 cents to $5.

GOODRICH-STANLEY.

Members of Two Well Known St. Johnsbury Families Married.

St. Johnsbury, Dec. 29.—Miss Jean Laura Stanley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Stanley, and Claude Moulton Goodrich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Goodrich, were married last evening at 7:30 at the home of the bride on Spring street. A company of about 45 relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Frederick B. Richards, pastor of the North Congregational church, the two ring ceremony being used. The wedding was informal, the bride and groom and the best man and maid of honor, William Middlebrook of St. Paul, Minn., and Miss Grace McLam of Ryegate, welcoming the guests on their arrival. The bride wore embroidered Japanese chiffon over satin and her veil was caught with orange blossoms, while her bouquet was of roses and lilies of the valley. Miss McLam wore pink tulle trimmed with pink net and carried pink roses.

The ceremony was followed by a reception attended by over 100 guests. The parents of the bride and of the groom assisted them in receiving. Mrs. Stanley wore cream embroidered crepe de chine trimmed with purple velvet and Mrs. Goodrich tender flowered chiffon trimmed with black. The decorations throughout the house were of Norway pine and Christmas wreaths. In the dining room Mrs. Perley Hartwell and Mrs. Carl Taplin, the groom's sisters, and Mrs. Charles L. Stanley and Mrs. Maurice P. Porter presided at the table and were assisted by Misses Madeline and Harriett Weeks, Laura Stanley and Mary Grint and Miss Mary Stanley of Plymouth, N. H. Others who assisted in various ways were little Lisa Hartwell, the groom's nephew, Stuart Perry and Doris Perry, Mrs. Ralph Howes and Mrs. Frank O. French.

The bride is a graduate of the New England conservatory in 1913 and the groom is a graduate of Dartmouth college in 1912. Mr. and Mrs. Goodrich will live in St. Paul, where the groom is with the Fairbanks Morse company, and they will be at home after Feb. 15 at 20 North St. Paul street.

Guests from away who were here for the wedding included Roy Lewis of Lebanon, N. H., Alfred Stanley and family and Miss Mary Draper of Plymouth, N. H., Mrs. Walter B. Adams of East Orange, N. H., Rev. and Mrs. Perry Conger of Rice Lake, Wis., John Cameron of New York City, and Miss Virginia Grant of Boston.

BRIDE DEMANDS SUPPORT.

Has Her Husband of 25 Days Arrested For Being Poor Provider.

Rutland, Dec. 29.—Henry Tucker was before city court yesterday on a complaint made by State's Attorney C. V. Paulin, charging him with non-support of his wife. H. H. Stickey appeared to defend the man. Tucker pleaded not guilty and the case was continued until January 3, when the respondent expects to have a pension check which he will divide with his wife of 25 days.

Tucker and Mrs. Emma House of the town of Rutland were married Dec. 3. He said that he had not had any work since and would have no money until Uncle Sam paid him for fighting in the Spanish-American war, the monthly check being due the 1st. Tucker was married to Mrs. House about 14 years ago, but was divorced.

GOV. McCALL IN LYNDONVILLE.

There to Attend Funeral of Mrs. Charles L. Stewart, Wife of State's Attorney.

Lyndonville, Dec. 29.—Governor-elect McCall came to Lyndonville yesterday afternoon to attend the funeral of his wife's sister, Mrs. Charles L. Stewart, to-day. Mr. McCall will return to Burlington Thursday.

Uric Acid Poison Undermines Health

Rheuma Drives It from the System and Eliminates Rheumatism

Ever since Rheuma has been sold in this vicinity, the sale of this marvelous rheumatism remedy has been steadily on the increase. This is due to the fact that Rheuma is guaranteed to eliminate rheumatism or money back. It cleanses the system of uric acid poison. Read this proof: "After treatment by three doctors, without result, I have been cured of a very bad case of rheumatism by using two bottles of Rheuma. It is now two years since I used the remedy, and I am still as well as ever. Previously I was a cripple, walking with crutches."—Judge John Barhorst, Fort Laramie, Ohio. Rheuma is sold by the Red Cross Pharmacy and all druggists at 30 cents. Get the genuine—in liquid form for internal use only.—Adv.

ORE WORTH $2,850 A TON.

Offers of $48 and $49 Per Unit for 60 Per Cent Tungsten Made at Boulder, Col.

Boulder, Col., Dec. 29.—Competitive bidding yesterday brought offers of $48 and $49 per unit for 60 per cent tungsten ore as compared with $5.80 last April. At that time the first increase brought the price to $7 per unit and in the intervening months it has made steady advances. Two buyers placed the schedule for 60 per cent ore at $47.50 a unit, making the ore worth $2,850 a ton.

Is Alcohol Your Master?

Alcohol creates a desire that becomes accumulative. Its burning action, and reaction, keeps demanding more of its kind.

For years and years, a casual drinker may never overstep the bounds, and therefore suffers less than those who do, but let worry, misfortune or grief come upon him, and alcohol becomes his master.

IN BOSTON MARKETS.

Signs that Butter Will Be Lower—Egg Prices Also Diminishing.

Boston, Dec. 29.—The butter market gives signs that the next change in prices will be lower. There is no great snap to the demand in any direction and a clearance of current receipts is a little more difficult than it was recently. Even fine fresh goods, receipts of which are very light, are not clearing up as readily as they did last week; this is a reflection of weaker advices from outside markets as well as a belief that the low ebb of production has passed and that soon the receipts will begin to expand. Supplies of ordinary fresh butter are large, as are also cold storage stocks, with holders more anxious for business than recently. The cheese market still derives strength from a good export demand. Receipts of eggs are increasing faster than the demand and prices are headed lower.

LIVESTOCK TRADING DULL.

Prices for Heavy Cattle Easy at Brighton Market.

Brighton, Dec. 29.—Trading in beef stock was dull and depressed at yesterday morning's Brighton market. Dressed beef sales slowly in the Boston market as usual during the holidays, and this is reflected in livestock. Other offerings were unchanged in tone or price.

Some heavy cattle of merit were offered at Brighton, but prices were easy, and even fancy cattle did not bring over $8. The range for tops was 7½@8c, with good cattle at 6@7c and light cattle at 5@6c.

Occasionally a fancy beef cow brought 6@6½c, but this was the extreme, the general range for the best offerings being 5½@6c, with good cows at 5@5½c, ordinary cows at 4@4½c, and canners at 3@3½c.

Bulls were slow of sale, with offerings ample for the trade. Shippers found it difficult to get over 5@5½c for their best offerings, though occasionally a choice beef bull was held at 6c. Bologna bulls were quoted at around 4@4½c, with ordinary bulls at 4½@5c.

Calves were in short supply, but with a quiet trade there was no improvement in values. Good lots sold at 8@8½c, with fancy lots at 7½@10c. Fair lots were quoted at 7@8c and grassers and drinkers at 4½@6c.

Hogs are running light at Brighton, though the West is still shipping fully. Some choice lots sold as high as 7c, but the bulk of the sales were made at 6½c, with rough lots at 5½@6c, and boars at 3@3½c.

Lamb were firm and best offerings brought 8@8½c, sheep being quoted at 3@5c.

Milk cows were in moderate supply, but prices were easier, ordinary cows being quoted at $30@34, with good cows at $30@37½, with fancy milkers at $80 and up.

BIDS WANTED

FOR PRINTING THE ANNUAL CITY REPORT

The city of Barre, Vt., by its printing committee, will receive sealed bids for printing the annual city report for the year 1915, said report to contain about 320 pages, more or less; the size of the pages to be 8½ by 5½ inches, and the size of the printed page to be 7¼ inches. The type to be set in 10-point solid and 8-point solid.

Eleven hundred copies of the report will be required, 75 of which shall be bound in cloth, and lettered in gilt as required; and the balance, namely, 1,025 copies, shall be bound in paper-covered copies. On or before March 1, 1916, and the cloth-bound copies on or before March 1, 1916.

One of the copy for the report will be furnished by the city by February 1, 1916. Samples of the style of binding and lettering and the amount of lettering for the bound copies may be seen at the city clerk's office.

All bids shall be made at so much per page for the 1,100 copies required and shall set forth the price per copy for the bound copies, including the lettering.

Samples of the paper, paper covers, and cloth binding to be used must accompany each bid, and all bids must conform strictly to the above specifications or they will not be considered.

All printing to be done under union conditions and bear the union label.

The committee reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

Bids will be received at the city clerk's office, Barre, Vt., up to Monday, January 3, 1916, at 7 o'clock, p. m., and should be plainly marked "Bids for Printing the City Report."

Dated at the City of Barre, Vt., this 29th day of December, 1915.
